

Yolanda Boag

Yolanda Boag is a multidisciplinary artist studying and practising on Kurna land. Drawing inspiration from life, nature, and whimsy, Yolanda's work embodies her passion for art and her connection to the natural world.

2017 saw Yolanda, a self-taught artist, illustrate M. Y. Zeman's children's book "Mumford Never Gives Up". The experience ignited her passion for Visual Arts; thus, in 2018 began her journey in formal art education with TAFE SA. In 2019, she accepted an offer to study at Flinders University in partnership with TAFE SA's Adelaide College of the Arts (ACA) bachelor's degree.

Alongside studying and creating art in her home studio, Yolanda is married and has an adult daughter attending Flinders University. At home, in addition to caring for a houseful of feather and fur kids, Yolanda raises butterflies (for release) and hopes to return to wildlife rescue (specialising in Australian Magpies).

Through her art, Yolanda seeks to express her appreciation for the environment and the delicate balance it maintains.
